Has Your Little Girl a Doll?

A Doll That is Just "Perfectly Lovely" Would Make Her the Happiest on Earth.

It doesn't matter how rich or how poor Santa Claus is feeling, he is happy as soon as he sees the pretty dolls for little maids that fill the whole St. Charles street side of the basement. Mamma sometimes forgets how a doll filled her own heart with joy when she was a little girl. Every kind and sort of dolls, from the little china doll at 50c up to the full-dressed, almost life-size, wax-haired, fully-jointed beauty at $6.50.

There are all sorts of rag dolls, china dolls, colored dolls, nationality dolls, was dolls, etc., etc.

We also keep the heads, arms, legs, clothes, hats, caps, boots, parasols and all the other little fixings to make the last one look like new.

Dolls' Dishes in great variety are also shown from 10c up to a dollar—all are of neat pattern and put up in a box properly packed.

Silks and Velvets

Waist, Dress or Skirt Patterns Are Always Good.

About Presents for a Man.

First of all buy him something that is useful and not merely sentimental.

If you would be sure of making an appropriate gift and one that will give lasting pleasure, buy him something in the line of fixings, such as Neckwear, Suits, Gloves, Suspenders, etc., and get a somewhat better quality than he would usually buy for himself. Here are some suggestions that will be in line:

Gloves, for instance.

There's that line of single-clasp Pique Kid Gloves and P. X. M. Cape Tan Gloves of the celebrated "Fowles" make at $2.00 a pair.

"Fowles" Elderdown-Lined Cape Tan Gloves at $2.00 would be grateful to one who suffers from the cold in winter.

What could be better for a street glove than the world-renowned "Dents" Gloves at $2.00? We have Pique Kid and P. X. M. Cape Tan Gloves, both with the single clasp a man likes.

The "Perrins" Gloves are never unacceptable. We have 1-clasp Pique Kid Gloves at $1.50, the same lined at $1.75, and a 2-clasp Pique Glove of the finest kid at $2.00.

The assortment of styles and prices includes a full line of D. & P. and Adler Gloves, also Boys' Kid and Mocha Gloves and Mittens, lined and unlined, at all prices from 50c to $1.00.

Cashmere Mittens, Scotch Wool Kid Gloves and everything else for hand comfort for both men and boys is here in great variety and at Nugent's low cash prices.

Or Fur Gauntlets.

These delightfully warm and always stylish things make acceptable gifts to every man or boy who appreciates warm fingers.

Boys' Water Mink Gauntlets at $2.00.

Men's Wool-Lined Dogskin Gauntlets at $2.75.

Men's Fur-Lined Reindeer Gloves at $3.25.

Men's Squirrel Lined Antelope Gloves at $4.00.

Or Suspenders.

The average man pays about 50c for Suspenders. Now, what could be more acceptable than a gift of a pair of those fancy Silk Suspenders at a dollar, or those with sterling silver or Roman gold buckles at $1.50 up to $3.00 a pair?

There is also the finest line of Suspenders with American or imported webbs, elastic or non-elastic, nickel or gold plated buckles, ends of calf, kid or braided silk, sizes for men and for boys. Prices $2.00 and 50c.

Or Neckwear.

Here is the only line where fashion and etiquette permit a man to wear colors. It is easy to learn a man's taste in colors, and an inspection of our lines will do the rest.

We show the finest line of Neckwear at 50c in the city. Every shape, color and style that any man of any taste could wish is here.

If you could spare a dollar for it, we would suggest the new Revilla Four-in-Hand, or the new Ionia Imperial, or the new Trafalgar Tack not to mention the new Prescott Puffs and Richmond Squares.

Or Silk Mufflers.

Attention is called to the comprehensive line of satin-lined or reversible Mufflers in Oxford shape at 50c up to $1.50 each, and to the new Opera shape at $1.00, $1.50 and $2.00 each.

Full-Dress Shields.

Nobby things for the carefully dressed man—black satin or Ottoman silk, with or without collar—white satin lined, either plain or quilted, $1.00 and $1.50 each.

A Flannel Waist

Pattern of Newest Style Would Be a Happy Hit.

For instance, there are All-Wool French Flannel patterns, done up in a neat box, braided fronts, sleeves, collar and cuffs, all colors, $2.75 up to $4.00 each.

Handsomely Embroidered Slide Bands in navy, fleur-de-lis and Persian designs, 2 1/2 and 3 yards of French flannel and enough silk-embroidered trimming for front, collar and cuffs with each pattern—all shades of flannel—$2.75 to $4.50 a pattern.

Something Special

Handsome Sheet and Pillow Case Set in a Box.

We have a dozen styles of Hemstitched and embroidered Sheets and Pillow Cases, put up in sets of 1 sheet and two pillow cases in a box, made of the very finest sheeting—work of this kind is entirely new—$2.50 to $3.50 a set.

Fine Bed Spreads

Sure to be Appreciated by Every Good Housekeeper.

At $2.50—Extra large White English Satine Spread, with heavy fringe; a useful Xmas present.

At $2.50—Swiss Marseilles Spreads, with elaborate raised work; very handsome; just the thing for Xmas presents.

Hair Ornaments.

They Are Fashionable and Therefore Acceptable.

In our Millinery Department, on the Second Floor, we are now showing the grandest collection that it has ever been our pleasure to offer.

Beautiful Aigrettes, New Ostich Fieees, Velvet Roses and Rich Velvet Bows.

A very large collection of Velvet and Silk Flower for dress garnitures has just been opened. These are the latest Paris fad, and the trick is so pretty as to be sure of wide adoption.
